

SEASON OVERVIEW & PRIVATE EVENT OPPORTUNITIES

SUMMER & FALL 2023

INTRODUCTION

CHICAGO'S BEST KEPT SECRET

Established in the 1922, the Oak Brook Polo Club is an American polo treasure and was once the sport's epicenter in the 1950's, and home to the U.S. Open Polo Championship for 24-straight years. In recent years, the club has resurfaced and has become one of the most visible polo destinations in the Midwest.

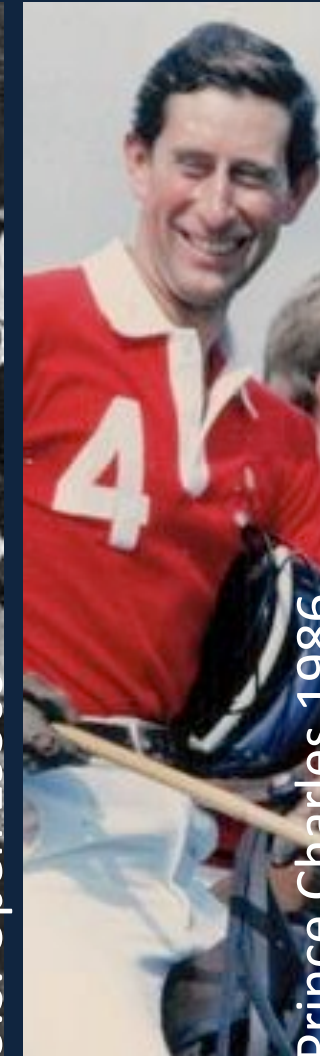

Today, the Oak Brook Polo Club plays on the Cecil Smith Field, which is adjacent to the Butler National Golf Course Clubhouse in beautiful Oak Brook, Illinois, and attracts crowds of fascinated spectators to marvel at the athleticism and majesty of this timeless sport.

In 2022, Oak Brook Polo celebrated its 100th anniversary as one of America's oldest polo clubs. We are the perfect setting to host your next corporate event, fundraiser or celebration. The Club's fun and inviting social atmosphere will reward your guests with a guaranteed memorable experience they will talking about for years to come. Let Oak Brook Polo become your newest tradition and most anticipated event gathering.

ENJOY THE FUN AND THRILL OF A CUSTOM POLO EXPERIENCE!

WELCOME TO POLO TOWN!

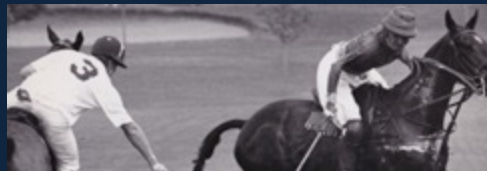

PLAYED FOR NEARLY A CENTURY – Founded by Paul Butler in the 1920’s, Oak Brook Polo continues to thrive and is played on the Club’s original fields, in what is now the Oak Brook Golf Club. However, Chicago’s polo roots expand to over 140 years.

GLOBAL RECOGNITION – Oak Brook Polo is still internationally recognized by thousands of veteran and current polo players. Its long and storied history is still reminisced by passionate players and the game’s leaders.

ICONIC NAMES – Oak Brook Polo was played by some of Chicago’s most iconic and celebrated people, including: Michael Butler, Cecil Smith, R.R. McCormick, P.K. Wrigley, Stanley Field, Laurence Armour and many others.

POLO CAPITAL – Oak Brook was once considered the polo capital in the United States, coining the nickname “Polo Town”. Oak Brook hosted the U.S. Open Polo Championship for 24-straight years (1954 – 1978) and won six (6) Open titles under Paul Butler.

SOCIAL SETTING – The Oak Brook Polo scene was a famed hot spot for Chicagoans and place that the attracted royalty, movie stars and dignitaries from around the world, including Prince Charles, Audrey Hepburn, Vivien Leigh and the Maharaja and Maharani of Jaipur,
